2009 – 2010 COOKIE ACTIVITY KITS
COOKIE CURRICULUM

For every age level, Little Brownie Bakers offers a specially-designed Cookie Activity Kit for adult volunteers. The kits were created by award-winning youth educators and communication experts, with input from some of the nation's most successful Girl Scout volunteers.

Packed with fun and inspiring activities that build essential skills, the kits are based on the latest GSUSA leadership research and are developmentally appropriate for the age. These materials bring GSUSA's Leadership Experience to life.

LEVEL	GIRL LEADERS INSPIRING CHANGE	DEVELOPMENTAL TRAITS	TEAM-BUILDING	DISCOVER, CONNECT, TAKE ACTION	GOAL-SETTING ACTIVITIES	COOKIE MATH	COOKIE SAFETY AND KNOWLEDGE	GSUSA VALUES AND BUSINESS ETHICS	COOKIE MARKETING	ENTREPRENEURIAL COOKIE BOOTH	POST-SEASON REFLECTION ACTIVITY
GIRL SCOUT LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE OUTCOMES →			Promote cooperation and team-building; develop healthy relationships	Identify community needs; advocate for themselves and others; educate and inspire others to act; seek challenges in the world; feel empowered to make a difference; feel connected to their communities	Seek challenges; develop healthy relationships; resolve conflicts; promote cooperation and team-building	Gain practical life skills	Gain practical life skills	Develop positive values; develop critical thinking; develop strong sense of self	Seek challenges; develop strong sense of self; develop critical thinking	Develop critical thinking; become resourceful problem-solvers	Feel connected to their communities
	DAISY K – 1	A better day… Inspired by Girl Scout Daisies! No one brightens a day like Girl Scout Daisies. Some cheered up young hospital patients with gifts of stuffed animals. Their smiles are contagious!	• Emergent readers • Increasing vocabulary • Highly imaginative • Like to imitate adults • Begin to initiate activities	Find Your Furry Friends Even cats and dogs have to work together sometimes	Cookies 4 a Change Leading the way to a better day for those in need	Put Your Heart Into It Voting and graphing activity to set goals	Countless Cookies Count to goal by fives	Rhyming for Safety Rhyming game to learn safety rules My Cookie Book Creating cookie masterpieces	Blooming Values Hands-on activity focuses on Girl Scout values	Daisy Cell Phones Fun practice with telephone skills Customers are Tops Girls say 'thank you' with clever bottle tops	Cookie Store Even if GS Daisies don't sell in booths, they can still learn the value of money in this financial literacy activity	Cookie Celebration Celebrate, evaluate and continue to lead the way to a better day for those in need
	BROWNIE 2 – 3	A better community… Inspired by Girl Scout Brownies! Giving to the community comes naturally to Girl Scout Brownies. With a great Gift of Caring program, girls feel empowered to make a real difference in the lives of those close to home… and on the other side of the world.	• Emergent readers • Concrete thinkers • Capable of accomplishing numerous new skills • Imaginative but becoming literal-minded • Thoughts focused on one's own perspective	Turn Over a New Rug Group problem-solving activity brings girls together – literally	Cookies 4 a Change Leading the way to a better community	Dishing Up Ideas Girls serve up a smorgasbord of ideas and make their selections	Cookie Chains Counting and division activity	Girl Scout Safety Band Girl Scout safety rules with a beat Cookie Clues A guessing game with cookies	Pocket Promises Creating a small reminder to stay true to the Girl Scout Law during the Cookie Activity	Pitching Sales Game of catch to practice presentation skills Poster Power Girls learn the ins and outs of effective advertising	Cookie Orders A cookie memory game	Cookie Celebration Celebrate, evaluate and continue to lead the way to a better community
	JUNIOR 4 – 5	A better planet… Inspired by Girl Scout Juniors! From innovative recycling projects to educational programs that inspire the whole community, Girl Scout Juniors are showing their passion for the environment. And they are making a world of difference.	• Readers • Thoughts limited to here and now • Literal thinkers • Thoughts focused on one's own perspective • More life experiences • More social	Common Cents Efficiency is the key to completing this challenge	Cookies 4 a Change Leading the way to a better planet	Let's Stick Together Girls become "attached" to many ideas	Glamorous Goals Cost estimation and division activity	Safety Charades Girls get a clue about safety Cookie Puzzles Word puzzles with cookie clues	Values on a Roll A game of chance, values, cookies and comics	Fast Pitch Sales pitches and catching customers' "fly balls" Cookie Slogans Writing that gives a taste of what's to come	Decisions! Decisions! A game to make booth planning easy	Cookie Celebration Celebrate, evaluate and continue to lead the way to a better planet
	CADETTE 6 – 8	A better connection… Inspired by Girl Scout Cadettes! When Girl Scout Cadettes work together, they make dreams come true. Girls are teaming up to help those who are less fortunate.	• Emerging talents • Thoughts extended to ideas and possibilities • Beginning to experience peer pressure • Developing ability to focus on others' perspectives	First Things First Girls are speechless as they try to get in order	Cookies 4 a Change Leading the way to a better connection with the community	Flying Frenzy Land on goal ideas that make a difference	Cookie Calculations Using calculators for "total" success	Scrambling for Safety Girls bring order to the Girl Scout safety rules Cookie Sudoku A sweet twist on a fun math puzzle	Valuable Cookies Girls get attached to Girl Scout values	Going Up! A whole new way to think about elevator pitches 101 Reasons to Buy One More Girls determine why everyone needs more cookies	The Business of Creativity Girls' cookie booth designs are beyond compare	Cookie Celebration Celebrate, evaluate and continue to lead the way to a better connection with the community
	SENIOR 9 – 10	A better life… Inspired by Girl Scout Seniors! These busy Girl Scouts make time for what's important – like helping with construction projects benefitting disadvantaged families. One group turned their passion into Gold Awards.	• Developing talents • Thoughts take in perspective of others • Search for identity • Able to empathize • Conscious of social norms	Defy Gravity Simple challenge defies the rules of nature	Cookies 4 a Change Leading the way to a better life for others	Stack it Up Girls build on others' ideas
	AMBASSADOR 11 – 12	A better future… Inspired by Girl Scout Ambassadors! Older Girl Scouts have a vision of a better world, and their energy knows no boundaries. Their action projects cross borders to make a difference on a global scale.	• More developed talents and abilities • Self-directed • Capable of higher moral thinking • Search for identity • Significant relationships with peer groups	Alphabet Challenge Keen perception is the key to this seemingly simple challenge	Cookies 4 a Change Leading the way to a lasting impact on the future	Cookie Graffiti Girls mark-up some big goals

COOKIE ENTREPRENEUR: BUSINESS LITERACY PROGRAM FOR TEENS

Teens turn the Cookie Activity into a hands-on business experience. To achieve high goals, they apply leadership and business skills, explore talents and career options, and use online tools.

Put the tools of the cookie trade into the hands of every Senior and Ambassador Girl Scout with this valuable resource. Cookie Entrepreneur Officer can be found in the GS Senior and Ambassador Cookie Activity Kits for volunteers or at www.littlebrownie.com.