

BROWNIE: MAKING GAMES

Hey Girl Scout! You can have fun without a computer, a deck of cards, or even a ball. Games are everywhere when you use your imagination to make them up! When you finish this badge you and your friends will never be bored again!

Step 1. Try a scavenger hunt

1. Start by making a list of at least 10 things to find in your neighborhood, around your house, or in your community.
2. Once you have completed your list go out and find the items!
3. Write down the location of each item you find.

Supplies:

1. Paper
2. Pen/Pencil

Step 2. Make up a mystery game

1. Find a large box. With the help of an adult cut out a hole big enough for your hand to fit through.
2. Pick 12 objects of different sizes and shapes. Make sure to write down what 12 objects you chose then place them in the box.
3. Glue or tape your list of objects on the bottom of the box out of sight.
4. When your mystery box is finished, have your friends and family guess what each object is just by touching it!

Supplies:

1. Large box
2. 12 objects
3. Pen/pencil
4. Paper

Step 3. Create a party game

1. In this step your challenge is to create a new game for people to play at a party. You will be making pin the badge on the Girl Scout. Start by making your Girl Scout!
2. Cut out a head and body. Glue them together to make your girl scout. Add or draw hair and a face on your girl scout.
3. Cut out a Brownie vest or sash out of brown construction paper. Glue it to your girl scout.
4. Cut out smaller triangles to represent badges.
5. Now it's time to play! Hang your girl scout on the wall and blindfold each player. Spin the player around 3 times and have them try and pin a badge on the Girl Scout!

Supplies

1. Construction paper
2. Markers
3. Glue
4. Tape or pins

Step 4. Change the rules

1. Pick your favorite game to play with friends like hide and seek, tag, or duck duck goose. Add a new rule to make it feel like a whole new game!

Supplies:

1. No Supplies needed

Step 5. Invent a whole new sport

1. Start by going into your back yard, garage or wherever you keep sports equipment. Pull out anything that you think would be fun to use like multiple balls of different sizes, Hula-Hoops, and cones.
2. Once you have all of your equipment decide how many players you want on each team, the rules of the game, and the scoring system!
3. Once you think your sport is ready to go make sure you give it a great name!
4. Write everything down and give your new sport a try. Feel free to make changes to your sport after you play with friends to make it the best it can be!

Supplies:

1. Pen
2. Paper
3. Assorted sports equipment
