

Girl Scouts:
Make your way.
Leave your mark.

We see it in your eyes: you've got places to go and dreams to explore. The adventure you're after is all yours-- we'll follow your lead. As a Girl Scout, there's nothing you have to prove. Fill your story with what matters to you, surrounded by community that has your back. Grow your skills as a scientist, a rock-wall climber, a poet, an activist, a friend...as whatever you want to try that day. Where's the path? You'll create it.

We already know you can. And we'll never stop reminding you.
Now, where shall we start?
