Girl Scouts of Middle Tennessee provides a travel support system that includes specialized support and a planning packet (sent upon request). GSMIDTN's Policies and Procedures, Volunteer Essentials, and Safety Activity Checkpoints must be followed in any Girl Scout activity.

- STEP 1: Begin planning your trip. Girl Scout planning and parent/guardian support are important parts of the early planning process.
- STEP 2: While still in the planning stage, submit this form three months in advance of the trip date.
- STEP 3: Have your troop members help in completing this form. A girl representiative will need to sign off on this document to ensure troop funds are used in the way the troop members have decided.
- STEP 4: You will receive pre-approval soon after receipt of this form and the troop may then begin making travel arrangements. You may be contacted should any concerns arise.

*Area in green notes Girl Scouts of Middle Tenness's jurisdiction. Area in yellow notes the 100 mile radius. This packet is for any travel, for any length of time outside of the yellow and green areas and/or for any trip lasting three nights or longer, including trips inside GSMIDTN's jurisdiction and 100 mile radius.
